

NDIS Planning and Pricing Information

PIP is a project of The Family Planning Association of WA (Inc.)

People 1st Programme (PIP) specialise in working with individuals with disability requiring counselling in respectful relationships, protective education and sexuality. PIP is a registered service provider with the NDIS.

Pricing

As per NDIA Support Catalogue, participants with an NDIS plan wishing to access PIP, will require funding to be available in the following support budget:

- ▶ Capacity Building Supports (Improved Daily Living)
- ▶ Therapeutic Supports (Counselling15_043_0128_1_3)

We recommend a total of 21 hours per service booking, which includes:

- ▶ 16 direct one – one counselling sessions (1 hour sessions and an additional 15 minutes per session for notes)
- ▶ 1 hour for report writing (required by the NDIS)

Travel

If a participant would like to be seen outside of our office locations*, this can be negotiated. As per the NDIS Price Guide, travel costs will be incurred.

Cancellations

As per NDIS Price Guide, we require 2 business days notice for cancellations (Mon-Fri). Short notice cancellations or non-attendance will incur a fee.

Referral

A referral form must be submitted to commence sessions and is available on our website.
